Dear friends of the MIMG Friday Night Meditation,

It is with sadness that we tell you that Main Street Yoga, our physical home since the inception of Friday night sangha, is now closed for good. Jim Manos, the proprietor and head instructor of Main Street Yoga and our gracious benefactor these many years, decided that it no longer is feasible to try to wait out the coronavirus and that it is time to transition to whatever comes next for him.

Those of us who gathered regularly at Main Street Yoga knew it as a warm, spacious, inviting, and entirely supportive place to practice together. We benefited greatly from Jim's generosity. Not only did he allow us to use the space without cost, he always seemed pleased to have our group's practice enhance the honest ambience of the studio. Jim could not have been a kinder host.

Jim faces costs in closing down his business. If you would like to help him out in appreciation of his many years of support for our sangha, please feel free to send dana by writing a check to Main Street Yoga and mailing it to:
Main Street Yoga,
1882 E. Main Street,
Madison 53704.

Jim will be receiving business mail there for several weeks to come. Any amount will be helpful to him.

So long, Main Street Yoga — we bid you a fond farewell.

Best wishes and good fortune, Jim, and thank you!
